

"Hall residents file ethics complaint against Tom Oliver, Billy Powell"

This is old news. If I recall correctly, this was investigated in the past and not seen as illegal. Commissioner Bell, last year, proposed a resolution to have the county attorney detail any potential conflicts of interest. Unfortunately, the measure failed as the swing vote, Commissioner Banks, sided with the two people under investigation.

We need ethical leaders that are not indentured to the Chairman.